1. Range of services / Terms of carriage

Post is a major carrier of mail items offering a universal parcel delivery service at generally affordable rates. It is therefore organisationally geared towards processing a large number of mail items in the simplest and most standardised way possible. A continuous monitoring of the individual parcel from posting through to delivery will only be carried out by Post, within the scope of this contractual relationship, to the extent that it is possible with reasonable means.

Parcels are certified mail items, the posting of which is confirmed by Post and the receipt of which is confirmed by the recipient.

1.1 Transport resources / Substitute performance

All transport resources of Post (e.g. letter containers, roll containers, etc.) that are made available to customers remain the property of Post; improper use (e.g. intermediate transport and/or passing on to third parties, internal transport/use within your company, storage of materials, etc.) is prohibited in any case.

Customers use the resources at their own risk. Proper use must be ensured. Operating/instruction manuals can be found online at business.post.at.

The amount of transport resources stored may not exceed the amount required for one week.

In the event of damage or loss, Post has the right to claim damages.

1.2 General limits for dimensions and weight

1.2.1 Minimum dimensions: 9 cm wide and 14 cm long

1.2.2 Maximum dimensions: Standard Parcel and Freight Collect Parcel: 100 cm long; 60 cm wide; 60 cm high

Large bulky goods:
Max. length: 200 cm
Max. girth: 360 cm (= length + 2 x width + 2 x height)

1.2.3 Maximum weight: 31.5 kg

1.3 Weighing

Post weighs the parcels and determines the surcharge according to the specific dimensions and shape.

For parcels with a declared value of over EUR 1,500.00, the weight is rounded up to the next full hundred grams, while for all other parcels, it is rounded up to the next full five hundred grams; a more precise weight determination is permitted.

2. Index of Products and Prices

For Standard Parcels up to 10 kg, all listed charges and surcharges are net amounts, i.e. excluding all legally owed taxes and duties, in particular VAT.

For Standard Parcels over 10 kg as well as Wine Parcels, all listed charges and surcharges are gross amounts, i.e., including all legally owed taxes, in particular VAT.

In the event that Post performs services for companies with registered office outside of Austria, the service is not taxable in Austria. Where applicable, the tax liability is transferred to the recipient of the service.

2.3 Additional services

The special handling of a parcel is carried out by Post as an additional service if requested by the sender at the time of posting and if the fee set for the specific additional service, in accordance with Section 2.3.5, is paid in addition to the postage for a Standard Parcel.

2.3.1 Personal delivery

The parcel is only handed over to the natural person named in the address; the recipient is required to show proof of identity. The note "Persönlich" (personal) must be affixed to the address side of the parcel.

2.3.2 Cash-on-delivery

The sender can instruct Post (herein "cash-on-delivery order") to deliver a parcel to the recipient only against the collection of a sum of money (herein "cash-on-delivery amount") for the account of the customer (sender). The cash-on-delivery amount may be no more than EUR 10,000.00 per order.

The cash-on-delivery order is placed – at the points of acceptance and within the hours designated for acceptance – digitally without physical paperwork.

The sender is required to provide or submit electronically the following information:

- name and address of the sender;
- name and address of the recipient of the parcel (herein "recipient");
- the cash-on-delivery amount to be collected in EUR;
- name and address of the person who is to receive the cash-on-delivery amount collected;
- account with a credit institution located in the SEPA area (stating the IBAN number) to which the collected cash-on-delivery amount should be remitted.

If providing this information electronically, the sender must also observe the provisions of the Post's Labeling and Pre-Advice Manual in the version applicable at the time of the contract conclusion (Section 1.2.1 of the GTC Austria Parcels), which can be found at post.at/geschaeflich_versenden_paket_versand_kunden_versandsoftware.php.

Cash-on-delivery parcels containing valuable items in accordance with Section 2.3.3 of the Index of Products and Prices must be posted with a declaration of value.

It is not possible to subsequently change the cash-on-delivery order, particularly the amount to be collected.

The cash-on-delivery parcel will only be handed over upon collection of the cash-on-delivery amount specified by the sender. In case of doubt, the recipient must prove their identity.

The collected cash-on-delivery amount will be remitted to an account with a financial institution located in the SEPA area, as specified by the sender, and in the name of the account holder specified by the sender. The sender may specify a different person to receive the collected cash-on-delivery amount.

2.3.2.1 Unclaimed cash-on-delivery amounts

Cash-on-delivery amounts that cannot be remitted are deemed unclaimed. The sender is entitled to request, within a period of 3 years (starting from the first business day after the payment), the remittance of the cash-on-delivery amount to an account with a financial institution located in the SEPA area specified by them.

2.3.2.2 Right of retention

Post is entitled to retain the collected cash-on-delivery amount to the extent of its claims against the sender, or to offset its claims with the cash-on-delivery amount.

2.3.2.3 Labelling

The following label must be affixed to the parcel:

2.3.3 Mail item with declaration of value

2.3.3.1 Items/contents with a value exceeding EUR 510.00 may only be sent in parcels with a declaration of value, otherwise liability will be limited as per Section 4.3 of the GTC Austria Parcels.

2.3.3.2 The following items are – subject to the exclusion of liability as per Section 4.6 in conjunction with Section 1.4 of the GTC Austria Parcels – permissible only in parcels with a declaration of value, regardless of their value:

- valid domestic and foreign legal tender;
- securities;
- precious metals (e.g. gold, silver, platinum);
- jewellery (excluding costume jewellery), gemstones and precious stones (crystals);
- watches made from precious metal, watches with precious metal and/or gemstones (crystals) and/or ornamental stones;
- jewels;
- gold nuggets;
- gold and silver coins;
- cheques;
- credit, cheque and debit cards;
- domestic and foreign savings books;
- valid domestic and foreign postage stamps;
- valid domestic and foreign prepaid phone cards;
- admission tickets;
- train/bus tickets and air tickets;
- gift cards and coupons;
- paintings, antiques, antiquarian writings;
- urns with ashes.

2.3.3.3 The sender must declare the actual value ("commercial value") of the item(s) being posted. It is not permitted to declare a value that is higher or lower than the actual value of the item(s) being posted. The maximum permissible declared value is EUR 10,000.00.

Only parcels with declared value are fully tracked all the way through to the delivery point.

The parcels must be sealed in such a way that they cannot be opened without damaging the seal and leaving visible traces of tampering. At the time of posting, the parcels may not bear any underlinings or labels.

If the declared value exceeds EUR 1,500.00, the packaging and any strapping must be secured with distinctive wax seals, distinctive seals, or other equivalent identifiable closure methods, ensuring that all ends of the packaging are firmly held, that it is not possible to access the contents without visibly damaging the packaging or closure methods, and that the packaging and strapping cannot be opened or removed without breaking the seal. Alternatively, the adequately packaged mail item may be placed into a safe bag or security pouch.

The following label must be affixed to the parcel:

2.3.4 Fragile

Adequately packaged parcels / mail items (of all shapes with dimensions of up to max. length 200 cm and girth 360 cm) containing fragile or shock-sensitive items. Post will handle these parcels / mail items with special care. (Shock-sensitive items are e.g. CD/DVD players; electronics; notebooks; computers and accessories; coffeemakers, etc.) Parcels containing fragile or shock-sensitive items must bear the following "Zerbrechlich" (fragile) label, otherwise, liability for breakage or shock damage will be excluded:

2.3.4.1 Fragile mail item with declaration of value

If a parcel is both a parcel containing fragile or shock-sensitive items and a parcel with declared value, it must be labelled with both stickers, namely the sticker as per Section 2.3.3 and the sticker as per Section 2.3.4., otherwise liability for breakage or shock damage will be limited.

In this case, only the postage rate for mail items with declaration of value must be paid, but not the fee for the additional service "Zerbrechlich" (fragile).

Parcels with declared value are excluded from the pickup service.

2.4.2 Preferred Post branch / Preferred pickup station

Parcels can also be sent to a preferred Post branch or preferred pickup station. The preferred Post branches can be found using the location finder at post.at; the pickup station is an automated mail receptacle for self-collection, which is usually set up in self-service areas. When the parcel is posted, the mobile phone number (or email address) and the name of the recipient are entered into the system. Once the parcel has arrived, the recipient will receive an automated text message or email notification (the sender and recipient must ensure that the contact details provided are correct and technically functional, otherwise Post is not liable). As soon as the recipient has received said notification, the parcel is ready for pickup. Should the parcel not have been picked up within 3 days, a reminder (in form of text message or email) will be sent to the recipient.

Parcels that cannot be delivered to the preferred pickup station will be held for pickup at a Post branch.

Only when sending a mail item to a preferred Post branch can all additional services in accordance with Section 2.3 be selected.

The bottle pack can only be returned once, but the carton can be used several times, provided the previously used carton is undamaged. For each reuse, the charge applicable according to the weight of the filled carton must be paid again in accordance with point 2.2.2. If an unused empty carton bottle pack is defective, it will be exchanged. An exchange or return for other reasons is not possible.

The cardboard inserts must be put together according to the assembly instructions; the bottles must be secured using the pre-cut fasteners and placed in the box base-to-base.

All additional services in accordance with Section 2.3 can be used for Bottle packages.

In the case of returns, the return postage rate in accordance with Section 2.2.2.4 must be paid for the return carriage.

Bottle packages can also be shipped outside Austria, depending on the country of destination and payment of the corresponding surcharge upon posting.
