OUTLOOK 2023

Market environment

- Inflation remains a major challenge (increase in energy and staff costs)
- The economic environment and purchase power in the regions are difficult to forecast

Revenue

- Visibility impacted by the challenging business environment
- Targeted growth in Group revenue in the lower to middle single-digit range:
 - Slight decline in Mail
 - Parcel & Logistics in the upper single-digit range
 - Further revenue growth in Retail & Bank

Investments

- Investment programme driving the conversion to CO₂-free delivery and completion of capacity expansion
- Maintenance CAPEX of about EUR 100m in 2023, growth CAPEX in the range of EUR 60m-80m in 2023

Earnings

- Forecast based on stable economic development accompanied by decline in inflation and sufficient supply of energy
- The objective is revenue growth against the backdrop of rising costs and to maintain earnings (EBIT) at about the same level as the previous year level

Dividend

- Proposal to the Annual General Meeting on 20 April 2023 to approve a dividend of EUR 1.75 per share
- Continued target of dividend distribution of at least 75% of the Group net profit
